"Let the little children come to me." Mt. 9:14

Matthew 14: 22-33

This is a story about having strong faith in Jesus. Imagine your friend asking you to walk on a frozen pond in the middle of winter. Would you risk falling through the ice? Peter was too worried about the "what ifs" to put his faith in Jesus. He was frightened by the wind and feared he would fall into the water and drown. But Jesus taught him that with a little faith, anything is possible through God.

This week, I will follow Jesus by...
