

Catholic Kid's Corner

"Let the children come to me."

Matthew 19:14

Matthew 21: 33-43

This is a story that foreshadows the death of God's only son, Jesus. Just like the king's son, Jesus was not greeted with kindness and love. Instead, He was instead mistreated and killed. This parable teaches us the importance of treating everyone with respect and kindness, even if they are a stranger to us. Treat everyone with love, as if they are Jesus.

This week, I will follow Jesus by...

---

---

---

Color in the foot each day you succeed in following Jesus!

Help the servants find the vineyard!

SPONSORED BY

Good Shepherd
BOOKS • GIFTS

Take this completed page into Good Shepherd Books & Gifts for 10% off one item!